Tigh Ceilidh Update Expressions of Interest

The Pairc Trust are pleased to announce that we are seeking expressions of interest from anyone interested in taking up the tenancy of the Tigh Ceilidh, Gravir, once the renovation works are completed.

The Tigh Ceilidh has been completely redesigned and transformed into a three-bedroom family home based at Carn Aonghais in Gravir. The building fabric has been updated to improve the insulation and add an entire second storey to the building, providing a warm, spacious living space.

Alex Murray Construction have completed the exterior and structural works on the property, most recently the exterior rendering, and are now moving on to the internal fit-out of the building. We look forward to sharing further updates as the work progresses.

At this stage the Trust are asking interested parties to fill out an online form - scan the QR code below - providing their contact details and describing their current living situation and connection to South Lochs. Further information on the property will be provided once works progress further.

If you have any questions regarding the development or the expression of interest process, please contact the Trust at info@pairctrust.co.uk.

National Lottery Funding – Youth Worker

The Pairc Trust is delighted to announce that it has been awarded £17,307 in National Lottery Community funding to deliver a major new youth initiative in South Lochs, Isle of Lewis. This award completes the overall funding package for the project, building on support already received from the Comhairle's Coastal Communities Fund. The South Lochs Youth Project will run for a year, allowing the Trust to employ a dedicated youth worker and provide structured, youth-led activities designed to support young people.

The project responds directly to priorities identified by residents across Pairc, where the lack of local youth provision and ongoing depopulation have created significant challenges for young people and families. Families have repeatedly highlighted the need for accessible, local opportunities and activities to help retain and attract young people to the area.

Thanks to National Lottery, the funding will enable The Pairc Trust to employ a part-time youth worker who will create a programme with young people themselves. Activities will include sports, arts, outdoor skills and bushcraft, Gaelic sessions, environmental projects, cooking, volunteering etc. Young people will also have opportunities to gain awards such as the John Muir Award and Saltire Awards, alongside practical life-skills.

A key element of the project will be the creation of a new Pairc Youth Council, giving young people a formal voice in local democracy for the first time. The Youth Council will feed into existing structures such as the Pairc Trust, Pairc Area Forum and Pairc Community Council, helping young people influence local decision-making and develop leadership roles.

Emma Mackenzie, Estate Manager at The Pairc Trust, said: "We are extremely grateful to the National Lottery for making this project possible. Families in Pairc have been clear for a long time that young people need more local activities and opportunities, and this funding means we can now deliver that. This will make a real difference to young people in Pairc, giving them a chance to learn skills, try activities and get more involved locally."

Pairc Trust Strategic Plan Survey

The Pairc Trust have launched a community survey asking for local residents' priorities and feedback as we seek to finalise our 10-year strategic business plan, following on from our community consultation event earlier in the year which led to valuable feedback from those who attended, covering: Crofting and Land Use; Renewable Energy and Climate Action; Tourism and Visitor Experience; Housing and Population Sustainability; Community Wellbeing, Care, and Social Support; Youth & Education

The survey can be accessed online via: <https://forms.cloud.microsoft/e/RsN9fMLG8t> and physical copies can be collected from the Resource Centre.

Pride in Place Event

The Pairc Trust held a Pride in Place event on Thursday 24th September for the local community to come and give their thoughts on how Pride in Place funding should be put towards community development projects in the Pairc district.

Residents gave their thoughts on what they felt Pairc was missing locally, how the funding could help improve the lives of children and young people, ideas for tourism projects in the area, and shared other ideas over a buffet meal, with local musicians playing and entertainment available for children.

We look forward to developing the ideas raised at the event, and will update you with further developments regarding Pride in Place funding as we have them.

Crofting Notices Update

The Pairc Trust is pleased to announce that its monthly newsletter has been formally approved by the Crofting Commission for the publication of statutory crofting notices within the parish of Lochs. This approval enables the Trust to publish a range of official notifications such as assignations, decroftings, and grazings committee announcements, ensuring that crofters and community members are kept fully informed of developments affecting their area. Statutory notices are required by the Crofting Commission for many types of applications, providing transparency and allowing crofters the opportunity to remain aware of changes within their township and wider community. By offering a local, accessible publication route, the Pairc Trust aims to support clear communication and strengthen community engagement.

Publication of crofting notices will be offered at £40 + VAT. Notices will appear in the printed edition of the Pairc Trust newsletter, which is also distributed digitally via email and social media channels. All notices will additionally be archived on the Pairc Trust website, providing a permanent and easily accessible record for future reference. Proofs will be issued to clients for approval prior to publication. The deadlines for newsletter submissions can be found on Pairc Trust's website and in each edition of the newsletter

Emma Mackenzie, Estate Manager for the Pairc Trust, said: "The Trust is grateful that the Crofting Commission recognises the importance of our monthly newsletter, which plays an important role in keeping the local community informed. We look forward to supporting crofters in the Lochs parish by providing a local route for sharing statutory notices."

Any submissions or enquiries regarding crofting notices can be made via email to info@pairctrust.co.uk

The Scottish Crofting Federation are holding a crofters' meeting at the Kinloch Hub, Ballallan on 11th November at 7pm.

They wish to speak to crofters about the key issues of protecting the rights of crofters on common grazings and ensuring their use, and to discuss the election of regional commissioners to the board of the Crofting Commission in early 2027.

Places can be booked via: crofting.org/upcoming-events/ - booking isn't essential, but the SCF would appreciate an idea of numbers in advance.

'St. Kilda Transformed' Book Launch

A new annotated and illustrated edition of the Rev. J B Mackenzie's 'Episode in the Life of the Rev. Neil Mackenzie at St Kilda' (privately printed 1911) - edited by Professor Philippe Laplace - will be launched in Edinburgh on Saturday 21st November. The first launch (only for members of the St Kilda Club attending their annual Reunion) will be at Edinburgh Zoo in the afternoon; and the second launch (open to the wider public) will take place at 7.30pm at the French Institute, West Parliament Square, Edinburgh EH1 1RN. This building is located at the junction of George IV Bridge and the Lawnmarket, close to St Giles Cathedral. Philippe will be present at both launches to speak about the book and sign copies. For more details of the launch events and bookings, please contact karen@islandsbooktrust.org.

The 1911 first edition of this rare book, based on notes made by Neil Mackenzie when he was the Church of Scotland Minister in St Kilda from 1830-1843, was privately printed by J B Mackenzie (Neil's son) in 1911 and only a few copies now exist. We want to make its content more widely available to all those many scholars and enthusiasts throughout the world who are deeply interested in the history of St Kilda.

The importance of the 1911 book reflects the fact that it is based on one of the few accounts of life in St Kilda as seen by someone (Rev. Neil Mackenzie) who lived on the island for over a decade in the first half of the 19th century. It consists of three chapters of less than 60 pages in total: General Observations; Religious State; and Notes on the Birds.

Moreover, Neil Mackenzie had a central role in the economic and social, as well as religious, life of the St Kilda community during his time on the island. His observations are therefore of great historical interest. In line with the prevailing 'improvement' philosophy of the time, he was also the main instigator of an initiative to improve the housing conditions of the islanders and change the way they managed the land - by re-locating the population from the former nucleated 'run-rig' village north of the present graveyard to new houses situated on individual crofts dispersed along 'The Street'. These changes (which were not universally welcomed by the islanders) can truly be described as a transformation of the community - hence the title.

Philippe Laplace, now Professor at the University of Marie and Louis Pasteur, Besançon, France, first approached IBT about preparing a new annotated edition of the 1911 book in 2023. We were keen to co-operate, given the historical value and limited availability of the earlier edition.

The new book will contain a full introduction by Philippe, a faithful reproduction of the text of the 1911 edition, additional illustrations (notably a drawing by Sir Thomas Dyke Acland of the former St Kilda village in 1812, and a reproduction of Henry Sharbau's detailed later plan prepared in 1858 of the new crofts and settlement), and a series of substantial endnotes by Philippe which comment on or add further information to the 1911 text. We gratefully acknowledge financial support from the Centre de Recherches Interdisciplinaires et Transculturelles, CRIT (University of Marie and Louis Pasteur).

Goose Management

Following on from our requests for local shooters to assist crofters in South Lochs who are experiencing issues with high numbers of greylag geese causing damage to crofting land, the Pairc Trust is pleased to announce that Soval Estate, the Trust's shooting tenant, is happy to provide assistance in cases of agricultural damage.

If you are experiencing issues with geese causing damage to croft land and/or common grazings, please contact the Trust via info@pairctrust.co.uk with your contact details and the location that the damage is occurring at, and we will pass this on to the team at Soval for them to discuss with you.

Gunnera Spades

Contractors from the Stornoway Trust have visited and treated gunnera hotspots within the Estate - we are currently awaiting confirmation from them of follow up visits pending a suitable weather window and will keep you informed.

Please send us the location of Gunnera plants that they are aware of via info@pairctrust.co.uk, with a what3words reference pinpointing the location if possible.

Community Land Outer Hebrides, who fund the control efforts, have enquired with the Trust as to whether we could host a tool library for special gunnera spades which could be borrowed for use in extracting smaller plants. If you would be interested in using these tools, please email us via info@pairctrust.co.uk

New Home Energy Project Opens

Up to 18 homes across the Outer Hebrides will be trialling tailored energy efficiency solutions as part of a new project, with works scheduled next year. Energy efficiency and renewables solutions developed on the mainland can be ill-suited to island homes. The project will explore practical, affordable solutions to make island homes warmer and cheaper to heat. Running til 2028, the project will also identify opportunities for future support, including improved advice, home visits and workshops. Project partners are asking householders to share their experiences of heating their homes and energy costs through a short online survey. Kirsty MacLeod of Tighean Innes Gall said: "The survey findings will play an important role in ensuring the project delivers practical solutions that work for island communities."

It takes just a few minutes to complete and is open now. The survey deadline is 12th October.

Complete the survey online www.surveymonkey.com/r/OHenergy or call 07436 624 385 for a paper copy.

Youth Enablement Award

DRIVING LESSON SCHEME

The Pairc Trust are offering support towards the cost of driving lessons. The award is specifically designed to reduce the financial barriers that often prevent individuals from accessing driving instruction. By subsidising the cost of lessons, the initiative supports young people in Pairc in gaining the necessary licences and driving skills aligned with their career or personal development goals.

By enabling access across multiple licence categories (available for standard car lessons, motorbikes, HGV training, and more!) the scheme increases flexibility for applicants.
